

FREE MAP HAUNTED HISTORY

VISIT Southwest
MONTANA

SOUTHWESTMT.COM

800.879.1159 • f t v i p

FORTUNES, LEGENDS AND GHOSTS. THE REST IS HISTORY.

In addition to spectacular natural beauty, Montana is known for having a penchant for the peculiar. With the state's history of Copper Kings, trying hardships and rowdy residents, it's no surprise that many of Southwest Montana's ghost towns and historic places tell tales of lingering souls. Whether you are a thrill seeker, ghost hunter or history buff, you'll love this list of spooky sites and tours.

HAUNTED PLACES

1 COPPER VILLAGE MUSEUM & ARTS CENTER, ANACONDA

The Copper Village Museum & Arts Center, once the City Hall, fire station and jail, has a unique history dating back to the late 1800s when it was built by Marcus Daly. This free museum is registered on the list of National Register of Historic Places and is said to be haunted by dozens of spirits roaming the grounds.

401 E. Commercial Ave. #A • 406.563.2422
southwestmt.com/listings/copper-village-museum-and-arts-center

2 GUNSLINGER GULCH, ANACONDA

This 1800s-era ghost town turned guest ranch contains 19 buildings, including an old church, where the current family lives. Paranormal activity occurs so frequently the Travel Channel's Ghost Town Terror created a series to investigate. Lodging reservations required.

1600 Cable Road • 406.559.6715
southwestmt.com/blog/ghost-town-terror-gunslinger-gulch

3 HARP PUB & CELTIC HOUSE INN, ANACONDA

Built in 1888, this two-story building housed many businesses over the years—including a brothel and pool hall—and was once owned by Oscar Carlson. Oscar set fire to the building in 1949, determined to be its final owner, before killing himself in the basement. But the fire was quickly extinguished and now, years later, the building operates as a popular pub and inn—as well as a permanent domain for Oscar's tortured soul. Ask anyone who visits or works there—it's still Oscar's place and he isn't afraid to make some noise to prove it.

23 Main St. • 406.563.2372
southwestmt.com/listings/celtic-house-inn

4 BANNACK STATE PARK GHOST TOWN, BANNACK

Come walk the deserted streets of Bannack, one of America's best-preserved ghost towns, and discover for yourself the way the West really was. Bannack is unique—it is preserved, rather than exploited. Visit the Hotel Meade where the ghost of a girl named Dorothy Dunne resides after drowning in a nearby pond in 1916. Although the hotel was closed in the 1940s, adventurous people visit the building in search of spirits. Open year-round; seasonal tours offered.

721 Bannack Road • 406.834.3413
southwestmt.com/communities/bannack

5 CABBAGE PATCH, BUTTE

The Cabbage Patch district was home to those left behind in Butte's mining boom—many of whom were widows, orphans, and miners who could no longer work. Crime and mysterious disappearances were commonplace, so it's no surprise this old shantytown is haunted today. Call ahead for open times.

108 S. Arizona St. • 406.498.0044
southwestmt.com/blog/buttes-cabbage-patch

6 CLARK CHATEAU, BUTTE

This gothic building was built by W.A. Clark for his oldest son Charles. For decades many of Butte's notables lived in the mansion along with the Shriners. When you visit, you'll understand why locals claim the mansion is haunted. Old money, elusive societies, perfectly intact 1800s furniture—take a tour or host an event to experience the chateau's lively spirits yourself.

321 W. Broadway St. • 406.565.5600
southwestmt.com/listings/clark-chateau

HIGHWAYS	ROUTE MARKERS	MAP SYMBOLS AND OTHER FEATURES
Interstate Route	Interstate	Lewis & Clark National Historic Trail
Principal Highway	U.S. Route	Continental Divide
Other Highway	State Route	Airport
Unpaved Road	Other Route	Haunted Places

NOTE: Public access is limited for some locations. To ensure you get the most out of your visit, please be sure to check with the individual establishments for the most up-to-date information.

© 2024. Printed and distributed with Accommodations Tax for free distribution.

FREE MAP

HAUNTED HISTORY

VISIT Southwest MONTANA

SOUTHWESTMT.COM

800.879.1159 •

FORTUNES, LEGENDS AND GHOSTS. THE REST IS HISTORY.

In addition to spectacular natural beauty, Montana is known for having a penchant for the peculiar. With the state's history of Copper Kings, trying hardships and rowdy residents, it's no surprise that many of Southwest Montana's ghost towns and historic places tell tales of lingering souls. Whether you are a thrill seeker, ghost hunter or history buff, you'll love this list of spooky sites and tours.

HAUNTED PLACES

1 COPPER VILLAGE MUSEUM & ARTS CENTER, ANACONDA

The Copper Village Museum & Arts Center, once the City Hall, fire station and jail, has a unique history dating back to the late 1800s when it was built by Marcus Daly. This free museum is registered on the list of National Register of Historic Places and is said to be haunted by dozens of spirits roaming the grounds.

401 E. Commercial Ave. #A • 406.563.2422
southwestmt.com/listings/copper-village-museum-and-arts-center

2 GUNSLINGER GULCH, ANACONDA

This 1800s-era ghost town turned guest ranch contains 19 buildings, including an old church, where the current family lives. Paranormal activity occurs so frequently the Travel Channel's Ghost Town Terror created a series to investigate. Lodging reservations required.

1600 Cable Road • 406.559.6715
southwestmt.com/blog/ghost-town-terror-gunslinger-gulch

3 HARP PUB & CELTIC HOUSE INN, ANACONDA

Built in 1888, this two-story building housed many businesses over the years—including a brothel and pool hall—and was once owned by Oscar Carlson. Oscar set fire to the building in 1949, determined to be its final owner, before killing himself in the basement. But the fire was quickly extinguished and now, years later, the building operates as a popular pub and inn—as well as a permanent domain for Oscar's tortured soul. Ask anyone who visits or works there—it's still Oscar's place and he isn't afraid to make some noise to prove it.

23 Main St. • 406.563.2372
southwestmt.com/listings/celtic-house-inn

4 BANNACK STATE PARK GHOST TOWN, BANNACK

Come walk the deserted streets of Bannack, one of America's best-preserved ghost towns, and discover for yourself the way the West really was. Bannack is unique—it is preserved, rather than exploited. Visit the Hotel Meade where the ghost of a girl named Dorothy Dunne resides after drowning in a nearby pond in 1916. Although the hotel was closed in the 1940s, adventurous people visit the building in search of spirits. Open year-round; seasonal tours offered.

721 Bannack Road • 406.834.3413
southwestmt.com/communities/bannack

5 CABBAGE PATCH, BUTTE

The Cabbage Patch district was home to those left behind in Butte's mining boom—many of whom were widows, orphans, and miners who could no longer work. Crime and mysterious disappearances were commonplace, so it's no surprise this old shantytown is haunted today. Call ahead for open times.

108 S. Arizona St. • 406.498.0044
southwestmt.com/blog/buttes-cabbage-patch

6 CLARK CHATEAU, BUTTE

This gothic building was built by W.A. Clark for his oldest son Charles. For decades many of Butte's notables lived in the mansion along with the Shriners. When you visit, you'll understand why locals claim the mansion is haunted. Old money, elusive societies, perfectly intact 1800s furniture—take a tour or host an event to experience the chateau's lively spirits yourself.

321 W. Broadway St. • 406.565.5600
southwestmt.com/listings/clark-chateau

HIGHWAYS	ROUTE MARKERS	MAP SYMBOLS AND OTHER FEATURES
Interstate Route	Interstate	Lewis & Clark National Historic Trail
Principal Highway	U.S. Route	Continental Divide
Other Highway	State Route	Airport
Unpaved Road	Other Route	Haunted Places

NOTE: Public access is limited for some locations. To ensure you get the most out of your visit, please be sure to check with the individual establishments for the most up-to-date information.

© 2024. Printed and distributed with Accommodations Tax for free distribution.

FREE
MAP

HAUNTED HISTORY

visit Southwest
MONTANA

SOUTHWESTMT.COM

800.879.1159 •

FORTUNES, LEGENDS AND GHOSTS. THE REST IS HISTORY.

In addition to spectacular natural beauty, Montana is known for having a penchant for the peculiar. With the state's history of Copper Kings, trying hardships and rowdy residents, it's no surprise that many of Southwest Montana's ghost towns and historic places tell tales of lingering souls. Whether you are a thrill seeker, ghost hunter or history buff, you'll love this list of spooky sites and tours.

HAUNTED PLACES

1 COPPER VILLAGE MUSEUM & ARTS CENTER, ANACONDA

The Copper Village Museum & Arts Center, once the City Hall, fire station and jail, has a unique history dating back to the late 1800s when it was built by Marcus Daly. This free museum is registered on the list of National Register of Historic Places and is said to be haunted by dozens of spirits roaming the grounds.

401 E. Commercial Ave. #A • 406.563.2422
southwestmt.com/listings/copper-village-museum-and-arts-center

2 GUNSLINGER GULCH, ANACONDA

This 1800s-era ghost town turned guest ranch contains 19 buildings, including an old church, where the current family lives. Paranormal activity occurs so frequently the Travel Channel's Ghost Town Terror created a series to investigate. Lodging reservations required.

1600 Cable Road • 406.559.6715
southwestmt.com/blog/ghost-town-terror-gunslinger-gulch

3 HARP PUB & CELTIC HOUSE INN, ANACONDA

Built in 1888, this two-story building housed many businesses over the years—including a brothel and pool hall—and was once owned by Oscar Carlson. Oscar set fire to the building in 1949, determined to be its final owner, before killing himself in the basement. But the fire was quickly extinguished and now, years later, the building operates as a popular pub and inn—as well as a permanent domain for Oscar's tortured soul. Ask anyone who visits or works there—it's still Oscar's place and he isn't afraid to make some noise to prove it.

23 Main St. • 406.563.2372
southwestmt.com/listings/celtic-house-inn

4 BANNACK STATE PARK GHOST TOWN, BANNACK

Come walk the deserted streets of Bannack, one of America's best-preserved ghost towns, and discover for yourself the way the West really was. Bannack is unique—it is preserved, rather than exploited. Visit the Hotel Meade where the ghost of a girl named Dorothy Dunne resides after drowning in a nearby pond in 1916. Although the hotel was closed in the 1940s, adventurous people visit the building in search of spirits. Open year-round; seasonal tours offered.

721 Bannack Road • 406.834.3413
southwestmt.com/communities/bannack

5 CABBAGE PATCH, BUTTE

The Cabbage Patch district was home to those left behind in Butte's mining boom—many of whom were widows, orphans, and miners who could no longer work. Crime and mysterious disappearances were commonplace, so it's no surprise this old shantytown is haunted today. Call ahead for open times.

108 S. Arizona St. • 406.498.0044
southwestmt.com/blog/buttes-cabbage-patch

6 CLARK CHATEAU, BUTTE

This gothic building was built by W.A. Clark for his oldest son Charles. For decades many of Butte's notables lived in the mansion along with the Shriners. When you visit, you'll understand why locals claim the mansion is haunted. Old money, elusive societies, perfectly intact 1800s furniture—take a tour or host an event to experience the chateau's lively spirits yourself.

321 W. Broadway St. • 406.565.5600
southwestmt.com/listings/clark-chateau

HIGHWAYS

-  Interstate Route
-  Principal Highway
-  Other Highway
-  Unpaved Road

ROUTE MARKERS

-  Interstate
-  U.S. Route
-  State Route
-  Other Route

MAP SYMBOLS AND OTHER FEATURES

-  Lewis & Clark National Historic Trail
-  Continental Divide
-  Airport
-  Haunted Places

NOTE: Public access is limited for some locations. To ensure you get the most out of your visit, please be sure to check with the individual establishments for the most up-to-date information.

© 2024. Printed and distributed with Accommodations Tax for free distribution.

